

- FELIPE CHIARELLO DE SOUZA PINTO
- MARCO ANTONIO LOSCHIAVO LEME DE BARROS

PRESENTATION

This second edition of Volume 18 of the Revista Direito Mackenzie (RDM) pays tribute to Professor and Attorney Lia Felberg, who dedicated over three decades to the Mackenzie Presbyterian University Law School, and who passed away at the beginning of August 2024.

Throughout her brilliant academic career, Professor Lia established herself as a reference in Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure, fields in which her journey was marked by remarkable contributions and influence. Her work not only enriched the legal field but also shaped the education of numerous generations of professionals. With her strength and determination, Lia Felberg paved the way in spaces historically dominated by men, becoming a role model of perseverance and inspiration for her students and colleagues. Her passion for Law and dedication to teaching will continue to motivate those who follow in her footsteps.

Known for her deep commitment to teaching, Professor Felberg held an unparalleled respect for her students' learning process, delivering her classes with unmatched dedication and unquestionable excellence. Her personal and professional qualities left an indelible mark on all those who had the privilege of learning from her.

Through this presentation, RDM extends its sincerest condolences to the family and friends of Professor Lia Felberg, while also honoring her remarkable dedication to teaching and legal education. Her inspiring and enduring legacy is carried on by her son, Rodrigo Felberg, who also pursues a teaching career at Mackenzie Presbyterian University, ensuring that her memory lives on among us.

São Paulo, September 2024.

Academic Editor

Professor Doctor Felipe Chiarello de Souza Pinto

Executive Editor

Professor Doctor Marco Antonio Loschiavo Leme de Barros

SUMMARY

Economic Power and its legal limits

1. Challenges for upgrading social and technical participation in the regulation of the new digital ecosystem
2. Privacy and public security: notes on the legal limits to state surveillance with the use of artificial intelligence
3. Contemporary democracies in light of the difficult fight against corruption: a further consequence of the crisis of representation and the challenge regarding public ethics and enhancement of the rules of good governance
4. Anticorruption Law and its application to state companies

Citizenship shaping the State

5. Access to justice and recognition: the public defender's office as an institutional mediator in its mission as custos vulnerabilis and amicus communitatis
6. Heritage education as a human right, an instrument for valuing cultural heritage and preventing environmental racism
7. Electronic voting and printed ballots in European legal perspective: the principles of electoral sincerity and trustworthiness
8. Medical-psychiatric treatment in Italy. The law versus practice

Historicism of Law, Legal Rationality and Social Systems

9. Yvonne, Esmeralda, Verônica

10. Why should jurists care about the philosophy of action?

11. Should emotions be normative in the classroom?