Dear Sir or Madam,

My name is Daniel, and I am writing to request permission for using a page of Acme Novelty Library, by Chris Ware, in an article that deals with the intricacies and heuristic process of reading comics. It is page 6 of ANL #2, about Quimby the Mouse. This article is to be published on Todas as Letras, a Brazilian Journal that deals with reflections on language and literature. This journal is free for everyone to read and download, no fees whatsoever. How should I proceed?

Kind regards

Warmest of regards,

Chris Ware.
